

DARSHAN WITH THE MESSENGER

Embrace Your Sacred Labor

with Godfre, Gautama Buddha and the Great Divine Director

There's no better proof of the practicality of the ascended masters than their teachings on the sacred labor. Each soul has a unique calling or divine plan, which includes the sacred labor. The masters tell us that pursuing and fulfilling our sacred labor is the key to the opening and blossoming of the heart chakra, and a vital step on the path of union with our Divine Self.

This five-day Summit University retreat offers abundant opportunities to discern your own sacred labor and make a deep connection with the divine direction for your soul. The program includes:

- Daily video replays of sessions with Elizabeth Clare Prophet from her profound series "Darshan with the Messenger," which focus on the Guru/chela relationship and the labor of love of students who desire to work with and emulate their master
- Workshops and hands-on exercises to help you tune in to your sacred labor and map out practical steps to put it into action
- A novena to the Great Divine Director to discern and fine-tune your divine plan
- Enlightening dictations by El Morya, Godfre and other masters on what it means to embrace one's sacred labor
- Chakra blessing

*You absolutely must have your sacred labor and it must be sharpened.
Because by the perfection of that labor of love, and always love, illumined and charged with the will to be, you will make your ascension.*

--Elizabeth Clare Prophet
